FROM THE EDITOR:

The last few weeks have been very worrying for your committee. We lost the use of our regular rooms at diggers, and since then have been moved from pillar to post, never quite certain where we were supposed to be, and often in quite trying conditions, contending with the noise of the Bingo players.

Therefore, we have decided to seek out other venues, and will be using many of these this term. We hope you are not too inconvenienced, and will soon get used to the new arrangements. We have given a list of the venues on Page 1, showing the abbreviations that are used in the calendar. We urge you very strongly to read this Newsletter thoroughly. If you do, there is a good chance that you will turn up at the right place at the right time.

We have included two maps with this Newsletter. The RSL Hall at Killarney Vale has ample parking in Hume Boulevard; the Friday Talks will be held at this venue.

The Entrance Community Centre can be reached by turning left into Battley Ave either from the Entrance Rd or Oakland Ave. This venue will be used for Discussion Group (Fridays), and a new activity, Singing for Pleasure, on Thursday afternoons. Details are on page 4.

As we are now obliged to pay for these venues, our little respite is over, and the fee for each session will revert to $2-00 (still the cheapest cuppa and bikky on the coast).

Please bear with us as we settle in to our new surroundings, we shall try our utmost to continue to bring you interesting activities with friendly fellow members in 2016.

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Hello everyone and welcome to my first report for the New Year, which will be my third and final year as your president. It may seem a peculiar thing to say at this stage, but it will probably be no time at all and I will be writing my final report. My favourite saying is 'Life is like a toilet roll, the closer you get to the end, the quicker it runs out'. There you have it, my one and only bit of philosophy for the year.

We have many changes happening this year; the major one has been the loss of our rooms at Diggers which have been the mainstay of our talks and classes for many years. This has necessitated a change to different venues for various classes, further details of which will be shown elsewhere in this newsletter. Please read all the details of venues and addresses very carefully.

We have a playreading/social day event in March which will be a free day with morning tea included and we hope to see many of you there. If it is successful and we have enough members attending then we will make these more frequent as we think the social aspects of our club are very important. There are also details of a proposed cruise later this year.

We will be moving all our equipment to a new address and vacate Diggers almost completely. Please be patient with your committee while we implement these changes as there may be a few hiccups.

That's all from me, and I hope to see many of you at our first talk, which incidentally I will be giving, at the new venue in Killarney Vale.

*Pam McGlenn
President*

WELFARE REPORT:

I have not been advised of any ill members, so I trust we are all healthy. Please let me know if you hear of anyone who is not well, sometimes it helps to know that someone cares.

- Gail Shore

PLAY READING MORNING

Now that we have settled into our new venue, we are thrilled to be able to give you our play presentation. Details are on Page 3 of this Newsletter. There is plenty of parking in the church grounds, a great morning tea, and it's all free. We hope to see you there.
