FROM THE EDITOR:

We thought we'd start this term with a bit of a bang and have a social day in the first week. We didn't have one last term because of Easter being in the middle of it; but this one will be very special with the launching of Pam's new book, the sequel to "A Distant Dream". We can all find out how Louisa and the children fare after leaving her stingy, uncommunicative husband in "The Dream Fulfilled".

A little bird has whispered that part of the story is about the Boer War, and if Pam's talk on this subject last term is anything to go by, it should be a ripping yarn. The actual launch will be preceded by the Creative Writing group reading some of their work, but do remember to book with Pam for this event. Full details are on both this page and page 5.

Tommy has come up with some good talks for this term and, of course the usual regular group sessions continue. I hope you all enjoy this term and the rest of the year

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Our new Course Co-Ordinator, Tommy Thomas, got into the swing of things very quickly and did a good job of stitching together an interesting program in Term 1. Term 2 will be no less interesting. It begins with a Social Day on 30th April which will also launch Pam McGlenn's new book. As the Social Day is very early in the term, it will be necessary to book for this event as quickly as possible. The sessions in the following weeks are most interesting. Warren Hyslop returns with four talks on aspects of Australian history; there will be two ladies speaking about their careers, and a number of other talks on miscellaneous interesting and topical subjects.

Membership numbers continue to be a concern. We now have barely 120, which is only two-thirds of the number we had a year or so ago. There is only so much that your Committee can do to make sessions interesting and advertise what we are doing. Please take an active part by telling friends and neighbours about U3A

In my message to you in the first term issue of our Newsletter, I hoped that Father Christmas would bring you the gift of eternal good health. Unfortunately, this did not happen in my case. In late February I had a partial gastrectomy for the removal of a benign stomach tumour. The first few weeks of recovery were difficult—for Judith as well as myself—but now I am feeling much better and gradually eating more at a sitting each week, and should be almost back to normal by the end of April.

During this difficult time, Judith and I have been enormously touched and buoyed by the numerous expressions of support by both relatives and friends including many in U3A.

For this we thank you.

Tom Marish.

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR'S REPORT:

This term will see the return of one of our most popular speakers, Warren Hyslop. His previous talks on maritime and Australian history have attracted a large following and we are confident the set of four talks from him on Fridays will be equally popular.

The theme of the "Role of Women through the Ages" introduced by John Herron will be extended by talks from Wendy Honey and Sister Marea Ross who will provide current examples of the important contribution women can now make in our society.

We will explore the heritage features of The Entrance and the Hunter Valley with authorities on both areas bringing their special knowledge to us.

Our case study in the "My Interesting Career" series this term will be Jim Smith, a well known identity of Norah Head with a wealth of knowledge of the history of 'Light Keeping' and 'Deep Pit Mining' in the Hunter.

On the economic front, we shall study the role of our beautiful Holiday Parks and Jennifer Scott from the Council Park at Toowoomb Bay will be one speaker. We are also hoping to get a representative from the private sector.

A new theme (that of our cultural diversity) will be explored by a talk by one of our members Tony Thomson on Russia and he will be supported by a Russian-born resident Irina Myslivets.

We have a busy term ahead of us.

Forever "Learning at the Lake"
Tommy Thomas

WELFARE REPORT:

Sadly, we have lost one member, Helen Riley, a stalwart of the Cryptic Crosswords group: and David Reed, who, although no longer a member due to ill health, had been a Course Co-ordinator, speaker and an active member of the Music Appreciation group.

They will both be sadly missed.
