FROM THE EDITOR:

Fourth term again, where does the year go? Once more we will hear the jingling of bells, hoof beats of reindeer and the ho-ho-hos of a red-coated bearded gent.

It's going to be a very full term as we have had to squeeze Grahame Peak's two final talks into the mix, but Tommy Thomas has done sterling work in his job as Course Co-ordinator and has given us a very varied selection of subjects—a lot of the speakers are people that he meets on the beach during his morning walks!

We had the launching of Pam McGlinn's second book "The Dream Fulfilled" at the start of Term 2, and if you haven't bought a copy and read it you jolly well should; an excellent book and a very good idea for Christmas presents.

Your editor had a little bit of success during the term and won a cash prize for a limerick in a competition held by the Northern Illawarra U3A. It runs as follows:

There once was a spider named Ida
Who lived on the banks of the Gwydir.
She wanted to act
So her friends made a pact
To send Ida the spider to NIDA.

Have a good Term, and see you at the AGM.

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I am writing this Newsletter column, my last, in August before Judith and I go on our next trip.

It is my eighth and last column as President because by the year's end, like most other Office Bearers and Committee Members, I will have served two years on the Committee after which our Constitution clearly states we can no longer hold the same Committee positions.

So, at the December AGM, there will need to be some radical changes in the allocation of positions. Further, as some of us at least will want to retire completely from committee responsibilities because of health problems, changed family commitments or age, there will therefore need to be some new blood on the 2009 Committee—preferably younger and more energetic than at present.

Do you want to nominate for the Committee? Do you know a member who may be suitable and willing? How about taking on the job of Treasurer or Newsletter Editor?

There are several reasons for having a larger membership. One is that it would make it easier to fill positions on the Committee. As I have said on every possible occasion: what we need more than ever is more new members.

The end of this year also marks the Tenth Anniversary of Tuggerah Lakes U3A Inc ...

Our energetic Course Co-Coordinator, Tommy Thomas, has at the time I write this already finalised the Term 4 program and is well advanced on ideas for Term 1 of 2009.

Tom Marish.

August 2008

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR'S REPORT:

This term the very popular talks by Grahame Peak on the topic of general psychology will continue.

An engineer and a senior consultant will speak about their careers. Noel Pollard will present two talks on the experience of a colleague when building roads in Saudi Arabia and of his own long career as a civil engineer in government.

Chris McPherson is a senior consultant with a Sydney based company engaged in energy conservation studies and he is the inventor of a novel device for capturing the energy of the ocean.

Jim Smith is a well known identity of Norah Head with a wealth of knowledge of the history of "Light Keeping". He will present the talk that he had to cancel in Term 2.

The travel theme will be resumed with a talk by Trevor Kruger on his return to Croatia this year.

Geoff Robertson has been to the USA and visited the site of Little Big Horn and will expand on the battle that took place there between the settlers and the "Red Indians".

The role of the Mercy Ship organisation will be presented by their NSW representative Hazel Budd and her husband Alan.

To conclude the year, we are trying an experiment when three of our Octogenarian members, Joyce Clinch, Barbara Skurr and myself will present a kaleidoscope of their separate views on topics of significance in their different societies in their early years.

Enjoy another term of "Learning at the Lake".

Tommy Thomas

There's never enough time to do all the nothing you want.

MERCY SHIPSMONDAY

Speaker: Hazel Budd
 Secretary: Eva Seale (4388 5848)
 Venue: diggers @ the entrance
 Date: 20th Oct

Around the world, billions of people live in fear and desperation, with impure water, inadequate food and little or no health care. Behind every statistic is a person waiting for hope and healing. Alan and Hazel will be speaking about the role of the Mercy Ships in addressing this challenge.

AN APRIL IN CROATIA:MONDAY

Speaker: Trevor Kruger
 Secretary: Rita Richards (4388 4945)
 Venue: diggers @ the entrance
 Date: 3rd Nov

Looking for grandfather Thomas—discovering Croatia. Understanding the Balkans? A review of a recent trip along the Adriatic taking in Opatija, Rijeka, various islands on the Dalmatian Coast, Dubrovnik, Zagreb and Mostar in Bosnia-Herzegovena. An exercise in cultural understanding of a recent troubled history.

THE BATTLE OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN 1876:MONDAY

Speaker: Geoff Robertson
 Secretary: Rita Richards (4388 4945)
 Venue: diggers @ the entrance
 Date: 17th Nov

The Battle of the Little Big Horn, or Custer's Last Stand, in 1876 was the last of the so-called Indian Wars of the American wild west. Although the Sioux and Cheyenne won the battle, they lost the war. The US government had reneged on the Treaty of Fort Laramie signed in 1868, and by 1875 the Indians were starving on their reservations. This is a sad tale of betrayal, brutality and revenge by the US government which has been conveniently ignored.

CARBON TRADINGMONDAY

 Secretary: Tom Marish (4396 6800)
 Venue: diggers @ the entrance
 Date: 1st Dec

Chris McPherson is a senior consultant who helps large companies to understand the impacts of carbon trading on their business. He will provide an overview of how carbon trading will work in Australia and then get us involved in trading carbon credits. 10th Nov: KINGS ROW: (1942) Drama (127mins) Ann Sheridan, Robert Cummings, Ronald Reagan, Claude Rains. The peaceful exterior of a small town conceals lives twisted by cruelty, murder and madness. Ronald Reagan's portrayal of Drake, a cheerful ne'er-do-well shattered by tragedy, has been hailed as his career best.

24th Nov: RUDY: (1993) Biopic (112min) Sean Astin, Ned Beatty, Charles S Dutton. True story of Rudy Reutiger, a working-class boy intent on realising his dream of playing football at Notre Dame, despite his poor academic record and unimpressive athletic ability. An uplifting and powerful testament to the strength of the human spirit.

8th Dec: TAKE THE LEAD: 2006 (117min) Antonio Banderas, Liz Friedlander. Loosely based on the true story of dance instructor, Pierre Dulaine (Banderas), who comes to an inner city school to teach the most hardened kids ballroom dancing.
