FROM THE EDITOR:

Once again the last term of the year is upon us, and I am not sure how on earth it happened so quickly. We have had such an interesting range of talks this year, and I believe there are many more in store for us in the coming term and next year.

Our membership has increased, and it is very gratifying to see new faces, and make new friends. Sadly, our Singing for Fun course will not be continuing. The numbers have been dropping of late, and our pianist Janet will not be available next term on account of health problems. I for one have greatly enjoyed our mornings together as we warble our way through so many of our old favourites.

As many of you possibly remember, there is a great feeling of companionship to be had from joining together in singing around a piano, and I have made friends that I may not otherwise have done. It certainly was great fun, and thank you Margaret for all the effort you have put into making these mornings so delightful.

But as they say, when one door closes another one opens. Our two introductory classes in German Language have been very interesting; our tutor Helen Jones has spent many years living in Germany. In this coming term the classes will continue, and will be held at the 'diggers' club on Monday afternoons, so if you are interested please come along.

In closing I wish each and every one of you a Joyous Christmas and a Happy and Healthy 2012.

- Betty Siegman

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

So many things in life have beginnings and endings, just like the classes we offer at our U3A.

During September, the first stumbling steps have been taken by our latest baby, the German Conversation group, run by Helen Jones (with back-up from Margaret Haage where needed). We thank Dorothy Rhodes for hosting the first few sessions of this group at her home. From the beginning of the new term, the group will be meeting at 'diggers' on Monday afternoons (see detailed program).

Sadly, another of our groups is closing down, at least for the time being. Two years ago, Margaret Goode started "Singing for Fun", and many of us have been along to enjoy singing old favourites. But recently, numbers attending have dwindled, and the pianist is unable to attend next term. Many thanks for running this group, Margaret, and for all the photocopying you have done so everyone would have the words of the songs!

As we pass through life, we learn rules of thumb that simplify our decision-making. We categorise things and people and put them into mental boxes. These are useful tools, but if we are not careful, we become lazy, using these short-cuts even when they are not appropriate, to avoid the need to think.

We tend to categorise our youth as a time of vigour and enthusiasm, of keenness to learn, and willingness to try anything. Sometimes, we categorise old age as a time of slowness, dormancy, inactivity or ill-health.

There is probably some truth in these generalisations, but they are not true for everyone, as well we know. Many a young person lacks energy, enthusiasm or adventure. And many an older person is active, interested and in reasonably good health.

What matters most is attitude of mind. Just as practising smiling or laughing, even as a pretence, can make you feel happier, so practicing seeing yourself as active and involved will help you become more active and involved.

We U3A-ers are willing to learn. Let's hope that enough of us are also willing to become involved and on the Committee. Your Committee needs you! Yes, you! Please put your name forward before the AGM in December!

- John Collis

COURSE CO-ORDINATOR'S REPORT:

It has been a varied year with presentations on a wide range of topics. The final term of the year is perhaps a little more relaxed with only eight presentations.

Member Trevor Kruger will return on two occasions to speak further 'On Being Human'. His first presentation, "A Matter of Taste" asks questions such as, 'Is taste determined by taste buds or the brain?' Members are invited to have their own questions on taste to put to Trevor.

Later in the term Trevor returns with 'Touch' or 'Once Again with Feeling' to have us think about pain, "Can pain be reduced, or increased, by belief?"

A visitor, Ralph Seccombe, will tell us about the joys, and I have no doubt, the woes, of manning nineteenth century sailing ships, i.e. square riggers. Ralph will be joined by Jocelyn Webster who next year is actually going to be part of the crew on HBD Endeavour. What an experience!

Ralph suggests that you could take yourself to Sydney during the summer and visit the 'James Craig' which after a working life of sixty years is now part of the Sydney Heritage Fleet.

History buffs and those who would simply like their understanding of the scope and legacy of the Roman Empire to be broadened in a thorough but easy to follow manner should attend the three presentations by Desmond Moore. Think of this series of talks as perhaps the catalyst for Christmas reading, thinking, "Hmm, I didn't know that, but now that I do, I just might find out some more for myself."

A visitor from Gosford U3A, Jean Witherall will present to us a side of our early history of which few of us may be aware, that is the situation of women. Jean's talk is titled 'A Cargo So Unnecessary' which doesn't sound too promising for those first female convict settlers. Find out if their lot differed from their male counterparts.

Eva Seale finishes the presentations for the year by continuing her reminiscence of her European River Cruise.

This is my final Report as there will be a new course co-ordinator next year. I wish to thank all those speakers who so generously have given of their time. Thanks also to the technical support members without whose input the presentations simply would not take place.

Have a very happy and safe Christmas.

ON BEING HUMAN—TASTE: MONDAY

Speaker: Trevor Kruger
Secretary: Gloria Watson (4332 7077)
Venue: diggers @ the entrance
Date: 17th Oct

Following an earlier session on the most primitive sense of smell we try to catch up with recent findings in the closely related sense of taste. Is taste determined by taste buds or the brain? How can I like chocolate but not want it? How have our ideas about taste changed?

~~~~~

ON BEING HUMAN—TOUCH: MONDAY

Speaker: Trevor Kruger
Secretary: Gloria Watson (4332 7077)
Venue: diggers @ the entrance
Date: 7th Nov

Discoveries about the gamut of sensations labelled "touch" are blurring the distinctions between the physical and the spiritual / emotional sides of our human nature. How many "senses" are there in touch? What happens when we touch each other?

~~~~~

A CARGO SO UNNECESSARY: MONDAY

Speaker: Jean Witherall
Secretary: Gloria Watson (4332 7077)
Venue: diggers @ the entrance
Date: 21st Nov

We follow the journey of the all-female Second Fleet ship which arrived in the colony in 1790 with 230 street girls, thieves and con women. The ship was termed the "Floating Brothel" because of the activity at ports of call on the journey. On arrival the women were labeled "an unnecessary cargo" when there was a desperate need for food. Profiles of nine convicts are explored and DVD footage shows how these feisty women were able to breathe life into a dying colony.

~~~~~

Speaker/s: Ralph Seccombe/Jocelyn Webster
Secretary: Gloria Watson (4332 7077)
Venue: diggers @ the entrance
Date: 21st Oct

The James Craig is the only nineteenth-century sailing ship regularly taking passengers. The life of this magnificent three-masted barque will be explained, with some reference to people who have been fortunate to sail her.

After a working life of some sixty years, going round Cape Horn 23 times, the ship lay derelict until rescue and a wonderful restoration effort, largely by volunteers of the Sydney Heritage Fleet.

Jocelyn Webster who will be sailing on the HMB Endeavour next year will add to the talk by sharing some of her sailing experiences with us. There will be a demonstration of stowing a square-sail and an explanation of the term square-rigger.

~~~~~

GERMANIC MIGRATIONS AND THE ROMAN WEST: FRIDAY

Speaker: Desmond Moore
Secretary: Gloria Watson (4332 7077)
Venue: diggers@the entrance
Date: 4th, 18th Nov; 2nd Dec.

This is a series of three talks that history lovers should find most interesting. Between the mid fourth century AD and the end of the 5th Century the Roman Empire had to be divided into a Western and an Eastern Empire and then the Western Empire collapsed under the pressure of repeated Germanic incursions, reshaping the boundaries of Western Europe so that it took on the shape we recognise today. These talks will examine the writings of the major historians on why the most powerful ancient empire collapsed so rapidly.

~~~~~
